PREFACE

This annual report is to be used by all Adventist schools offering secondary education in the North Pacific Union Conference and is to be submitted to the NPUC School Commission as representative of the denominational and regional accrediting authorities.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the NPUC School Commission is to ensure that schools are on a Journey to Excellence. This Annual Report fosters on-going school improvement by holding schools accountable to standards. The report is organized by school-wide standards which are essential for quality educational programs. These standards are to be met by all Adventist accredited schools. This report also seeks school accountability through a report on the implementation of school improvement action plans. In addition, this report facilitates the review of the secondary curriculum.

PROCEDURES

Specific instructions for each section of the annual report accompany it as a separate document. The following are general instructions.

- 1) The report shall be completed by the school principal and submitted on or before October 1.
  - < Academies submit the report directly to the NPUC Office of Education
  - < Junior Academies submit the report to their local conference office of education

(NOTE: Jr Academy reports are due to the Office of Education on September 21.)
- 2) A preliminary report of findings will be provided to each school so that they may respond in writing prior to the NPUC School Commission's meeting.
- 3) The NPUC School Commission will report deviations from standards and establish a school status.
- 4) Upon notification of the NPUC School Commission's findings and voted status the principal shall present the NPUC School Commission's response to the school board.

STANDARD for the Philosophical Foundation

Standard: The mission statement, philosophy, and purpose which give direction to the school's program are developed and approved cooperatively by the school board, administration, and staff and reflect Seventh-day Adventist educational philosophy.

YES NO

1. The mission, philosophy and purpose of the school are expressed in a written statement and made available to staff, students, parents and constituents.
2. The mission, philosophy and purpose of the school are consistent with Seventh-day Adventist beliefs and based on sound educational practice.

STANDARD for School Community and Constituency

Standard: The school, community and constituency are mutually interdependent and cooperative interaction is essential to provide an effective educational program.

YES NO

3. The school admits students based on procedures that are consistent with its stated mission and purpose.
4. When determining mission and programs, the school is responsive to community and constituency needs.

STANDARD for Administration

Standard: Administrative and professional staff are adequate in number and with appropriate training to ensure the effective and successful operation of the school.

YES NO

5. The school board and administration work cooperatively to achieve a successful school program.
6. The school board plans for and provides resources to ensure that sufficient funds are available for the annual operating budget and capital improvements.
7. Administrators make decisions and facilitate actions that focus the school on school-wide curriculum goals and student achievement.
8. Administrators support and encourage teachers to utilize innovative instructional strategies that effectively enhance student learning.
9. Administrators implement a plan for classroom supervision and evaluation of instructional personnel.
10. Administrators maintain a secure record-keeping system for all school, student and board information.
11. Administrators maintain valid administrators' certificates with proper endorsements. (See: TABLE B on page 4.)
12. The administrator is systematically evaluated by conference personnel.
13. Student supervision is provided during school hours and school functions by qualified adults.
14. The administration has submitted an Interscholar Sports Plan to the Board for approval.
