

Notes from Alisa & David Lopez

“Raising Children to Love God”

Worship with the family . . .

Alisa was going to mention that we make Sabbath a special time by starting it Friday night with one of the boys lighting candles, getting to pick favorite songs to sing, pick from a skit (charades) or Pictionary, stories featuring missionaries like Nyla and the White Crocodile.

Lopez Family Mission Statement

We live lives of passion to do good.

We love and serve God.

We love to learn.

We help each other reach our potential.

We are brave.

We use strength to show kindness.

We show respect and act with integrity.

We make mistakes and take responsibility.

We strive to take care of our bodies.

We accept, forgive and keep moving forward.

We never give up.

We know that love wins.

We thank God for our many blessings.
